FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

BRACKEN HONORED

CHARLESTON -- Eastern Illinois University student Michael Bracken, son of Bob and Joan Bracken of Orland Park, has been named a Sigma Phi Epsilon Zollinger Scholar.

He is one of only 28 Zollinger Scholars across the country honored for their special potential for a future leadership role in their local Sigma Phi Epsilon chapters.

Eastern President David Jorns presented the award.

Zollinger Scholars receive $400 for their junior year and, providing they maintain a 2.5 grade point average and stay active in fraternity and campus life, will have their scholarship renewed in their senior year.

EIU's Illinois Nu chapter of Sigma Phi Epsilon was installed in November, 1992. Although it is one of the newest fraternities on campus, it has received numerous awards for its academic, athletic and extracurricular activities.

Craig Tafel, a senior last year at EIU, was named the outstanding Sigma Phi Epsilon Senior in the Illinois district in 1993-1994.

Bracken, a 1992 graduate of Marist High School in Chicago, is a junior finance major at Eastern.
